

● INDUSTRIE TAPES

PRODUCT INFORMATION

Van der Windt supplies a wide range of tapes for a multitude of applications including closing boxes or packages, electrical insulation, masking when spraying or painting, protecting door and window frames during construction and bundling bouquets of flowers. Van der Windt's tapes are available in many different qualities and models and for either manual or machine processing. The tapes can be supplied either unprinted or can be printed, which makes them ideal information and advertising carriers. To make using the adhesive tapes even easier and faster Van der Windt supplies various types of manual dispensers. Easy and economical; Van der Windt offers you self-adhesive solutions for all your closing demands!
